

School in the Coulee - Coulee Kids Podcast Rubric

	Proud to Podcast	Pushing Perfect	Needs Attention
Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Establishes a clear purpose and consistently maintains focus -Selects quality content which includes all important vocabulary -Arranges presentation using own words -Always written with the audience in mind -Title(s) entice the reader to listen -Teaches the content -Compelling introduction and memorable conclusion 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Establishes a purpose and reasonably maintains focus -Selects adequate content and includes most of the important vocabulary -Arranges presentation using own words -For the most part, written with the audience in mind -Title(s) somewhat entice the reader to listen -Partially teaches the content -Effective introduction and conclusion 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Clarify your purpose and/or focus -Check to see that you have enough content -Fact check your content -Review the important vocabulary -Rewrite presentation so it is in your own words -Think about who your audience is and what they will think -Go back to the tips for writing titles discussed in class -Rework your project so you are teaching and not reporting -Write an adequate introduction and/or conclusion
Delivery	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Extremely well-rehearsed, smooth delivery in a conversational style -Highly effective enunciation, expression, pacing, and rhythm keep the audience hooked -Consistently uses correct grammar -Volume of voice, music, effects, etc. enhance presentation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Well-rehearsed and almost always smooth delivery -Effective enunciation, expression, pacing, and rhythm keep the audience interested -Nearly always uses correct grammar - Volume of voice, music, effects, etc. inconsistently enhance presentation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Practice your presentation until it doesn't sound like you are reading -Make your voice sound expressive and rhythmic -Increase or decrease your pace -Try it again without laughing or giggling -Double check your grammar - Check volume to determine if your voice, music, effects, etc. are complimentary to your presentation
Enhancements	Photos, video, and/or music: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Always enhance the quality and understanding of the presentation -Evoke a rich emotional response from audience -Follow rules for quality graphics as discussed in class -Illuminate the presentation 	Photos, video, and/or music: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Adequately enhance the quality and understanding of the presentation -Evoke an emotional response from audience -Somewhat follow the rules for graphics as discussed in class -Enrich the presentation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Clarify the purpose of your photos, video and/or music -Think about the emotions relevant to your chapters, and help your audience feel -Check to see that you have followed all of the rules for enhancements as discussed in class -Move past decorating with photos, music, and video
Technical Production	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Transitions are smooth, spaced correctly, and without noisy, dead space -Makes every effort to anticipate and filter out unwanted ambient noise - Effective use of background music, effects, or other audio (if applicable) -Sound remains at a consistent level throughout -Chapters in logical sequence and graphics change at appropriate intervals -Podcast length keeps the audience interested and engaged 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -For the most part, transitions are smooth and spaced correctly; a minimal amount of noisy dead space can be heard -Some ambient noise - Somewhat effective use of background music, effects, or other audio (if applicable) -Sound level changes are acceptable -For the most part, chapters in logical sequence and graphics change at appropriate intervals -Podcast length keeps audience listening 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Go back to the editing board to eliminate "cut offs" -Filter your background noise and record again -Revisit your music output levels or style of music - Revamp your use of background music, effects, or other audio to eliminate distracting elements (if applicable) -Re-examine your chapter sequence and/or graphic changes -Trim down your piece to eliminate any "blah blah"

Project Creators _____
Peer Reviewer's Name _____

